SUNSHINE AND PHILOSOPHY We seem to be drifting from the day of the rail splitter to that of the hair splitter.

"Mercy me" said Mrs. Gollightly to her daughter as they entered the brown stone front of Mrs. Highup.
"What is it mother?" said Gyn-dollynn.
"I have made a dreadful mistake and worn my work basket instead of my hat. Isn't it perfectly dreadful?"

If the size of the hat gave us the name, "Merry Widow," the ones we have now should be the "Hilarious Husbandless."

Mrs. Taft, according to the New York Press, has been awarded the blue ribbon as the champion shopper.
That being the case, she'll make that $75,000 presidential salary look like thirty cents.

A local minister says a Bryan motto is, "Never pay today what you can stand off until tomorrow."

The papers said the Waters-Pierce Oil Company was going to pay that big Texas fine in silver. They seem to be having some trouble in finding a silver mine.

No Jesse dear, "Brally isn't here this year and Orgain is married."

The president of Harvard comes to Texas to study municipal government, and the senior class of Yale is here studying forestry. Harriman has been camped in Texas for some weeks for his health and W. J. Bryan has bought a winter home at Corpus.
Come ye disconsolate of the earth; Texas can furnish the Balm of Gil-lead for you all.

A fellow in New York is teaching classes "how to tell a funny story and be quick about it." O, that he could only be induced to come to Bryan.

"Keep thy shop and thy shop will keep thee," said poor Richard. Paraphrased for Bryan: Let us build up our schools and our schools will build us up.

The east wind of the past few days is the kind that killed and chilled poor Poe's Annie Belle Lee. It's not surprising that one so delicately named should have withered. It is enough to give Bridget O'Flaherty the shakes.

Puck.
"What was your opinion of the sheath gown, Anophele?"
"Good opening for a live young skeeter."

TOLERATED.
Unshaven Person (entering barber shop)—I do not want a hair-singe, shampoo, electric massage, dandruff cure or head wash.
Barber—Well, what do you want?
U. P.—I want a shave.
Barber—Shave him, Bill. There's no law to prevent these chaps waiting our time.—Puck.

"That boy," said the Bellville farmer, "beats my time! Just now, when I quoted the scripture to him, he come back at me hard!"
"You don't say so?"
"Shore, I told him to get a hoe an' foller the furrow. 'Thar's gold in the land,' I said, and what do you reckon he made answer?"
"You tell it."

"Father," he says, "I don't keer fer the gold of this world; I've laid up treasure in heaven!" —Atlanta Constitution.

Election Ordinance
Be it ordained by the City Council of the City of Bryan:

That an election for City Officers, to wit: Marshal, Secretary and three members of the City Council, shall be held by the qualified voters of said City, at the County Court House in Bryan on the first Tuesday in April next, it being the sixth day of said month; and the presiding officer, together with such others as he may appoint, shall hold said election in accordance with the City Charter and Ordinances and the State Law governing elections.

Adopted by the City Council and approved by the Mayor this 4th day of March, 1909.
J. T. MALONEY, Mayor.
J. B. HINES, City Secy.

It is reported that the president will appoint Mrs. Carmack, widow of ex-Senator Carmack of Tennessee, postmistress at Columbia, in that state. This would be a graceful act and one that the murdered senator's friends everywhere would appreciate.

Hell.

Bro. Morris, the pastor, announces "Hell" as the subject of his discourse at the First Methodist church next Sunday night. In view of the strenuous effort of many to abolish hell, many people will no doubt be glad to hear the subject discussed. Everybody is accorded a special invitation.

For Free Distribution.

Beginning Sunday, March 14th, we will have in the rear of the First Methodist church religious papers, tracts and magazines for free distribution. This is not only designed for the benefit of those who may not feel able to take church papers, but also for those who may take one or more papers, and, after reading, desire to exchange them for others they have not read.

Contribution of papers, tracts, magazines and books are solicited for this use. Send to me at the parsonage or bring to the church and give to the ushers.

THOMAS H. MORRIS, Pastor.

terian church as follows: Sunday school minster League at 4 p. m.

ciety of the First Methodist church

The Methodists are arranging for a Sunday School Institute, to be held June 5 to 9. Further notice will be given later.

Most of the Sunday schools around town have adopted the Cross and Crown system for increasing the number and improving the attendance of the pupils. So far the effort has been gratifying.

St. Andrew's Church.

The usual services will be held on Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

Great characters are a better inspiration to the young than monu-

WHEEZER OR SNEEZER.

Have You Heard of Hyomei for Catarrh, Asthma and Hay Fever.

If you wheeze or sneeze, hawk or spit, snuffle or blow, something is the matter with the membrane of your respiratory tract, and you need Hyomei.

And you need Hyomei because it will cure you of any catarrhal or inflammatory condition that exists.

It isn't a stomach medicine, or spray, or douche, but a very pleasant, healing, antiseptic balsam, from the eucalyptus forests of Australia. You breathe this balsamic air through a small, hard rubber inhaler, and it reaches every nook, corner and crev-ice of the membrane, and promptly kills the catarrh germs.

E. J. Jenkins will sell you a complete Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) outfit for $1.00, on the moneyback plan.

"The use of Hyomei cured Mr. Cutler of catarrh in 1903. He was strongly endorsed the use of Hyomei in many instances, and we are glad to go on record regarding this marvelous catarrh cure, and endorsing its use." —Mr. A. Cutler, 291 Post Ave., Battle Creek, Mich. Oct. 12, 1908.
